Summary: The Naval Criminal Investigative Service (NCIS) is seeking persons retired from the CSRS or the FERS to support our protective service detail. The Criminal Investigator's mission is to perform critical protective and investigative assignments.

Responsibilities: Criminal Investigators carry out critical investigations and protection assignments for NCIS.

Duties:

- Providing protection for various protectees
- Conducting investigations
- Work Full-Time
- Maximum age limit (must be under 60 years of age at the time of appointment)
- Potentially can earn full annuity and full salary
- Earn Annual Leave and Sick Leave
- New hires under this authority will be offered a 2-year term contract
- Earn Law Enforcement Availability Pay (LEAP)

*The maximum salary is the GS-13, step 10. If applicants retired below the GS-13, step 10, then their pay will be set at the highest grade and step they achieved prior to retirement.

Applicants who retired from a Department of Defense (DoD) entity are not subject to the salary offset requirements for re-employment and may receive full annuity and full salary. Applicants who retired from non-DoD entities may need to seek a waiver from their former agencies to avoid having their salary offset by their annuity. All reemployed annuitants must meet certain criteria to be hired within DOD; all appointment types are covered by Social Security only; there is no retirement contribution election opportunity; reemployment will not increase retirement or death benefits; reemployed annuitants are not eligible to participate in TSP.
