

Navy Department
Office of Naval Intelligence

20206

July 27, 1916.

From: Director of Naval Intelligence.
To: Chief of Naval Operations.

Subject: Naval Districts; preparation of plans for establishment of information service.

Reference: Op-14, 24514-39:3, of April 18, 1916.
Enclosure: Confidential detail plans.

1. In obedience to paragraph 2 of above cited reference, there are forwarded herewith the confidential detail plans for the establishment of the information service and collection of information for the use of the officer in charge of Naval Districts.

J. H. OLIVER.

Confidential
No. 514

1st Endorsement

Sept. 22, 1916
Op-14

From: Acting Secretary of the Navy..
To: General Board.

Subject: Plans for establishment of information service,
Naval Districts.

1. Referred for comment and recommendation.

FRANKLIN D. ROOSEVELT.

2nd endorsement, G.B.No.402 (Serial No. 308). Oct. 5, 1916. C

From: President General Board.
To: Secretary of the Navy..

Returned.

2. The General Board recommends that these Instructions for Information Service be approved and issued to the Commandants of Naval Districts and to others as required.

GEORGE DEWEY.

Navy Department.
October 6, 1916.

The recommendations of the General are approved.

ALL NCIS/NAVY INFORMATION
CONTAINED HEREIN IS UNCLASSIFIED
DATE: 11/14/2017
BY: NCISHQ-CODE 22
INITIALS: File

JOSEPHUS DANIELS

Secretary of the Navy.