WHO WE ARE

Within the Department of the Navy, the Naval Criminal Investigative Service (NCIS) is the civilian federal law enforcement agency uniquely responsible for investigating felony crime, preventing terrorism, and protecting secrets for the Navy and Marine Corps.

NCIS will defeat threats from across the foreign intelligence, terrorist and criminal spectrum by conducting operations and investigations ashore, afloat, and in cyberspace to protect and preserve the superiority of the Navy and Marine Corps warfighters.

Comprised of about 2,000 personnel, with more than 1,000 serving as federal Special Agents, NCIS is unique among U.S. military criminal investigative organizations. It is a civilian-ran agency headed by a civilian law enforcement professional who reports directly to the Secretary of the Navy.

Today, NCIS operates in approximately 191 locations in more than 41 countries. Given the organization's worldwide forward presence, NCIS is often the first federal law enforcement agency on the scene when U.S interests overseas are affected.

The agency's global beat, relatively modest force structure, and jurisdictional mosaic- NCIS frequently operates in locations where local, state, or foreign law enforcement agencies have primary jurisdiction- means that partnering with other law enforcement entities is essential. NCIS agents routinely work with local, state, federal, and foreign law enforcement and security agencies to address criminal incidents, identify and mitigate threats to U.S. naval forces and assets, and pursue joint proactive operations.

INTERVIEWS

An interview is a required part of the NCIS Honors Internship program application process. Students recommended for further processing are notified via email to contact the respective NCIS field office to schedule an onsite or virtual interview. Any travel expenses incurred for an onsite interview is the student's responsibility. Students will get fingerprinted as part of the T3 investigation for onsite interviews and for virtual interviews students will need to submit fingerprint cards at a later date.

PRELIMINARY SELECTION PROCESS

Once applicant interviews are completed and a selection (or selections) made, the Internship Supervisor at the respective office will provide the NCIS headquarters Intern Program Specialist with the name(s) of the selectee(s). The Internship Supervisor will also provide all supporting documentation (interview questions and interview evaluation sheet) to the Intern Program Specialist, NCISHQ, Human Capital Development Department (Code 10R). If fingerprints were done manually, the Internship Supervisor at the respective office will mail the fingerprint cards to the Intern Program Specialist (Code 10R).

The Internship Supervisor at the respective office may make a provisional verbal offer to an applicant, providing that the applicant is also made aware of the requirement for completion of favorable criminal history checks, credit checks, and favorable review of T3 investigation. Ultimately, the offer is not "official" until the selectee receives email notification of a pending acceptance into the NCIS Internship Program from the NCIS HQ, Human Capital Development Department.

Upon accepting the internship offer, selectees are required to fill out and submit paperwork. A final offer is contingent upon a favorable review of the T3 investigation and submission for a secret clearance. If all checks are clear, the intern receive an interim secret clearance.

The Internship Supervisor at the respective office will also email supporting documentation (interview questions and interview evaluation sheet) for non-selectees.

FINAL SELECTION PROCESS

Selectees will receive an official internship offer via email once the following results are favorable: criminal history and credit checks, and the results of the T3 investigation and submission for a Secret clearance is complete. If the selectee accepts the internship position, a welcome aboard package with reporting instruction is forwarded to the student.

If criminal history checks, credit checks, and review of T3 investigation reveal derogatory information and the checks are not completed favorably, the selectee is notified via email of non-selection for the internship.

The notification email will use a standard template consisting of approved wording. At no time will any NCIS personnel offer additional verbal or written information regarding selection or non-selection.

NCIS INTERNSHIP DRUG POLICY

NCIS is firmly committed to a drug-free society and workplace. The following policy sets forth criteria for determining whether applicants' prior use of illegal drugs renders them unsuitable for employment. The policy balances the needs of NCIS to maintain a drug-free workplace and the public integrity necessary to accomplish its law enforcement and counterintelligence mission with the desirability of affording employment opportunities to the broadest segment of society.

CRITERIA

- Applicants who have illegally used drugs while in law enforcement, a prosecutorial position, or a job requiring a U.S. Government security clearance are considered unsuitable for an internship.
- Applicants who have deliberately misrepresented their drug history in their application are considered unsuitable for an internship.
- Applicants who have been involved in the cultivation, manufacture, distribution, processing, or sale of any illegal drug for profit are considered unsuitable for an internship.
- Applicants who have used cannabis and/or anabolic steroids or any derivatives thereof within the past three (3) years are considered unsuitable for an internship within the requisite 3-year time frame. An applicant's experimental use of the above-referenced drugs, which occurred more than three (3) years before the application for an internship, will be considered based on an evaluation of factors.

- Applicants who have used prescription drugs or a legally obtainable substance in a manner for which it was not intended within the past three (3) years before the application for an internship will be considered based on an evaluation of factors.
- Applicants who have illegally used any drug (other than experimental use of cannabis and/or anabolic steroids) within the past three (3) years are considered unsuitable for an internship, absent compelling mitigating circumstances. An applicant's experimental use of drugs other than those referenced above, which occurred more than three years before the application for an internship, will be considered based on an evaluation of factors.

To determine whether you meet the NCIS's drug policy, please answer the following questions:

1. Have you ever used an illegal drug (no matter how many times or how long ago) while in a law enforcement or prosecutorial position, or in a position that carries a high level of responsibility or public trust with it?
